

No. 609 Equity

2nd Q<sup>nt</sup>. Do you know the parties to this suit?

Ans. Yes I know them all

3rd Q<sup>nt</sup>. Did you know Eliza Hightman in her lifetime? if you did she die seized and possessed of any real Estate?

Ans. I knew her in her lifetime, I look at Exhibit No. 1 shown me and it correctly describes the property she owned at the time of her death.

4th Q<sup>nt</sup>. Did she die testate or intestate?

Ans. She died without a will.

5th Q<sup>nt</sup>. State the names, ages and residences of those heirs at law in whom the property above mentioned in Exhibit No. 1 vested and to whom it descended at the time of her death?

Ans. Joseph Hightman, a son, and Mary Hightman his wife, both adults and residents of Frederick County.

Thomas Hightman, a son and Annie Hightman his wife, both adults and residents of Frederick County.

Wannah Mc Coy a daughter, and Robert Mc Coy her husband both adults, and residents of Washington County Maryland.

Maggie Herrieth a daughter, and William B. Herrieth her husband, both adults, and residents of the State of West Virginia.

Mary A. Horner present witness a daughter, and Jeremiah Horner her husband, both adults and residents of Frederick County.

Parah Smith, a daughter, and Jacob Smith her husband, said Parah Smith having since died, left surviving her, her husband above mentioned and Pearly Smith her daughter, both adults and residents of Washington County.

Fannie Childs married to G. M. Childs, Eliza Hightman whose wife's name is Augusta Hightman; Albertus Hightman whose wife's name is Phoebe Hightman; Amanda C. Harshbath married to William Harshbath and residents of Frederick County. Excepting Amanda C. Harshbath and her husband, who are residents of the State of Pennsylvania and children of Jacob Hightman, a deceased son of said Eliza Hightman and whose widow is Elizabeth Hightman, now living in Frederick County; Mollie C. Horine married to Martin L. Horine; John J. Hightman whose wife's name is Etta Hightman, Eliza Hightman married to Nathan Hightman, all adults, residents of Frederick County.

Excepting John J. Hightman and his wife, who live in Baltimore County Maryland and who are children of John Hightman, a deceased son of said Eliza Hightman, and whose widow still survives him Eliza Smith Hightman by name a resident of Frederick County, and the following grand children of said John Hightman and children of Martin L. Hightman a deceased son of said John Hightman Wm; Fred. Hightman, Cona Hightman, Roy Hightman, Margt Hightman and Model Hightman all infants, unmaried and residents of the state of Virginia, and said Martin L. Hightman's widow, Lucretia C. Hightman living in the state of Virginia.

6th Q<sup>nt</sup>. Is the husband of said Eliza Hightman deceased, living or dead?

Ans. He is dead.

7th Q<sup>nt</sup>. What in your judgment is the property worth described in inicks

somed
the
It is decreed
of them
to answer
Denny
opportunity
Frederick County
the
in the clar
crown
place
time and Exhibit
on the
inea,
and