

No. 6356. Equity.

sum of one thousand dollars gold coin of the United States, which sum they promise to pay at the National Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, to the said John Loats, George F. Webster, and George J. Appold, or bearer, in thirty years from the date of this bond with interest at the rate of six per centum per Annum, payable semi-Annually in gold on the first days of April and October in each year, on the presentation and delivery to the said National Mechanics Bank of Baltimore of the proper Coupons hereto annexed. This bond is one of a series of three hundred and twenty five, whereof one hundred and seventy five are for five hundred dollars each of like tenor and date, issued for money borrowed to purchase iron rails and for superstructure and equipments for said railroad the whole issue of these bonds, amounting to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, is secured by a mortgage, bearing even date herewith, on the entire property of the Company; said mortgage is executed and delivered to John Loats, George F. Webster, and George J. Appold, in trust, to receive the full payment of the principal and interest on this bond.

In testimony whereof, the said Company have hereunto caused to be affixed their corporate seal, and thereunto to be subscribed by their president, and countersigned by their secretary and treasurer at Frederick City Maryland, this first day of October, A.D. 1870.

President
Treasurer

(29)

Secretary.

Mortgage Bond
United States of America
State of Maryland.

The Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad Company.

No. (Certificate) $500.

Know all Men by these Presents, that the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad Company acknowledge themselves indebted to John Loats, George F. Webster, and George J. Appold or bearer, in the sum of five hundred dollars gold coin of the United States, which sum they promise to pay at the National Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, to the said John Loats, George F. Webster, and George J. Appold, or bearer, in thirty years from the date of this bond with interest at the rate of six per centum per Annum, payable semi-Annually in gold on the first days of April and October in each year, on the presentation and delivery to the said National Mechanics Bank of Baltimore of the proper Coupons hereto annexed. This bond is one of a series of three hundred and twenty five, whereof one hundred and seventy five are for one thousand dollars each, and one hundred and fifty are for five hundred dollars each, of like tenor and date, issued for money borrowed to purchase iron rails, and for superstructure and equipments for said railroad. The whole issue of these bonds, amounting to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars is secured by a mortgage, bearing even date herewith, on the entire property of the Company; said mortgage is executed and delivered to John Loats, George F. Webster, and George J. Appold, in trust, to receive the full