

No. 6556. Equity.

Newspapers published in Frederick County, in "The Democratic Advocate," a newspaper published in Carroll County, in "The Baltimore American," "The Sun" and the morning "Herald" three newspapers published in Baltimore City, and in "The Press" a newspaper published in the City of Philadelphia in the State of Pennsylvania, for more than ninety days before the day of sale, they did pursuant to said notice attend at the Court House Door in the City of Frederick on Tuesday the 9th day of June in the year 1896 at the hour of One O'clock P.M. and then and there proceeded to sell said property, rights, franchises &c, as follows:— Your Trustees offered at public Sale to the highest bidder all the Railroad of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Rail Road Company, extending from the City of Frederick in Frederick County, to the line dividing the State of Maryland from the State of Pennsylvania, at or near Kingsale, being about twenty-eight miles in length and situated partly in Frederick County and partly in Carroll County, including the right of way of said Railroad Company and the land occupied thereby, and all the bridges, culverts, fences, walls, depot and station buildings and grounds and the appurtenances thereto belonging, together with all the tolls, rents or incomes to be had, levied or collected therefrom, and all the franchises, rights, privileges, properties and rights of property of every kind and description whatsoever belonging to the said Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad Company, all of which said Railroad and its appurtenances, properties, rights of property, franchises, rights and privileges of every kind and description, your Trustees offered at Public Sale to the highest bidder as an entirety and sold the same to John C. Linn of the City of Philadelphia in the State of Pennsylvania the said John C. Linn, being the highest and best bidder therefore, at and for the sum of One hundred and fifty thousand dollars, upon the terms of sale prescribed by the decree & mentioned in said advertisement and the said John C. Linn has paid to your Trustees the sum of Twelve thousand dollars cash and obligated himself to comply with the terms of sale, as will appear by his acknowledgment of purchase filed herewith marked Exhibit, J. C. L. —

And your Trustees further report that at the time of the passage of the decree in this case the said Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad Company owned no rolling stock or personal property, and, therefore, none was or could be included in the sale above mentioned.

And your Trustees report the gross amount of said sale at One hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

Bernard Carter

Milton G. Wynn

Trustees.
