

No. 7048 Equity.

Testimony &c.

3rd. Int. Did you know Edward J. Lefevre in his life time, and if so, is he living or dead?

Ans. I did; he is dead April 11th 1899.

4th. Int. Did Edward J. Lefevre owe your husband the bill set out in the "Exhibit A," and if so state what you know?

Ans. He did; and I have heard him, say before his death, a short time, that he owed my husband James M. Kerrigan, the account set out in "Exhibit A." and would pay it; but he died suddenly and it has not been paid.

Julia F. Woodworth sworn and examined,

1. Int. State your name, age, and residence?

Julia F. Woodworth, age 35 years and reside most of the time in Emmitsburg Frederick County, Md.

2nd Int. Do you know the parties to this suit?

Ans. I do.

3rd. Int. Do you know whether Edward J. Lefevre was indebted to James M. Kerrigan, in his life time, if so, for what?

Ans. He was; he was indebted to him for improvements on real estate and other charges which are correctly set out in "Exhibit A." Edward J. Lefevre was my cousin and he told me on different occasions that he owed the bill and would pay it. But he was found dead in bed and the bill was not paid.

Did Edward J. Lefevre die seized and possessed of any personal property?

Ans. He did not.
