

No. 7282 Equity.

Testimony re.

Decree

I mean by his daughter the infant defendant in this cause, I am well acquainted with the property mentioned in these proceedings and have seen the property within the last week and observed that it is in bad condition. The buildings needing repair and entire new fencing. It would cost at least a couple hundred dollars to put in good condition. In my judgment it would be to the benefit interest and advantage of the infant defendant to have the property sold as I understand she has no means to put the property in repair and I do not believe it would be an expedient thing to do if she had.

To the general interrogatory by the Examiner.

I do not.

Francis J. Strine.

Whereupon there being no other witnesses to be examined and no further time being required for the production of evidence the said Examiner hereby certifies that the foregoing are the original depositions in this cause as the same were read over to the witnesses and signed by them respectively and he herewith returns the same enclosed to the court.

Witness my hand this 10th day of December, 1900.
