

No. 7595. Equity.

properly, and to his, her or their heirs the property to have, sell, or then sold, free, clear, and discharged of all claims of the parties to the cause, and of any persons claiming by, from, or under them; and the said Trustees, shall bring into this Court the money arising on such sale or sales, and the bonds or notes, which may be taken for the same, to be disposed of under the direction of this Court, after deducting therefrom the costs of this suit, and such Commission to the said Trustees as the Court shall think proper to allow, on consideration of the skill, attention and fidelity, wherewith they shall appear to have discharged their trust.

John C. Mattes.

Trustee Sale.

of dwelling houses in Frederick City, Md.
By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity, passed on the 20th day of April, A. D. 1903, in a cause in said Court, wherein Elizabeth A. Snow, and others are the plaintiffs, and Dr. William E. Solter, and another are defendants, it being No. 7595, Equity directing a sale of the real estate in said Equity cause mentioned, the undersigned trustee appointed by said decree to make the said sale, will offer at public sale, at the Court house door, in Frederick City on Saturday, May 16-1903, at 10.30 o'clock A. M., all the following described real estate located on the south side of East Patrick Street, in said City.

First, All that dwelling house, and lot known as No. 90, East Patrick Street. The dwelling house is of brick two stories high contains six rooms, a garret and dry cellar. The lot fronts 17 feet on East Patrick Street, and runs back same width 137 feet for depth, and is described in a deed from Clara Leumatin et al. to Mary C. Popham, dated October 13, 1902, and duly recorded in Liber A. D. No. 15, at folio 272, one of the Land Records of Frederick County.

Second, All that house known and lot known as Nos. 138, and 140, E. Patrick Street.

The dwelling house is of brick, two stories with tin roof, and contains in part known as No. 138 six rooms, a garret and cellar; and in part known as No. 140, seven rooms a garret and cellar and pantry. The lot fronts on East Patrick Street, and runs back - feet to an alley