

No 7811 Equity

to the best interest of all concerned and especially to the interest of all concerned and especially to the ^{interest of the} infants to have said property sold and the proceeds distributed to them entitled.

My reason for the above is that the property is of too small a value to be divided among so many heirs and the property is declining rapidly in value, and it should have been sold long ago, and would have been sold if my uncle Jacob T. C. yesterday advice had been taken.

Seal Interrogatory.
