

NO. 7982. Equity

describes said real estate correctly. Said Real Estate is worth about between $5000 = & $6000 =

He left a widow surviving him named Alice G. Ray, and Eight infant Children as his only heirs at law. Their name and ages are correctly given by the foregoing witness whose testimony I have heard. They all live with their mother in Madison County.

Letters of Administration have been granted to the widow on the said decedent's personal estate, and I am also acting as one of her agents in the Settlement of the Same.

I am familiar with the Volume of his personal estate and the amount of his indebtedness. The said personal Estate is not sufficient, by a great deal to pay the debts owing by the said W. S. Ray at the time of his death. The Personal estate is about $9000 = and the indebtedness between $17000 =, and 18000 =.

He was indebted to the Plaintiff at the time of his death as Exhibit A. B. C. as shown by them less a credit of $984 <sup>75</sup>/<sub>100</sub> which is for money paid and goods sold by the decedent to the Plaintiff in his life time. Said indebtedness, less said credit, is still due to the Plaintiff.

 and Nothing further.
