Know all men by these presents that I, Salvador Francis Miller, better known as S. Francis Miller, from the manner of signing my name, being conscious of the uncertainty of human life, and being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do hereby make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, I never having heretofore made any other.

I give devise, and bequeath all property, which may belong in any way to me at the time of my death, whether said property be real, personal or mixed, or of whatever kind or nature to my beloved wife Maria Walters Blunk Miller, better known as Minnie Blunk Miller, as trustee for our beloved daughter Marie Woodward Miller, better known as Woodie Miller; my said wife use the rents, issues, interests and profits arising from the renting investments, of all of said property as she may think best for the benefit of my said daughter and herself but with no power during the life of our said daughter, to dispose of transfer or assign the principal, except reinvest the same judiciously in her name as trustee for my said daughter - should it become necessary at any time or times to so reinvest, and on the death of either my said wife or daughter my said property is to vest immediately in the one of them who survives absolutely fully and completely, and be entirely subject to the disposition and control of such survivor, after such arrives at the age of thirty five years; but before such survivor arrives at said age she may have power to reinvest, but in case of necessity only, and then in her own name only.

But if such survivor be incompetent to dispose of or fail to make disposition of said property, then and in that event it is my will that said property shall vest as follows:

- 1st. Entirely in my child or children
