

No. 7979 Equity.

is receiving every necessary care and attention for her Comfort.

3. That the property belonging to the said lunatic, as shown by the Schedule heretofore filed in this case, is such and produces no income for the Comod expenses of said property or to provide a proper and Comortable Support of the said lunatic; that the taxes on the property of the said lunatic are due and in arrear for four years and that the expense incurred by these proceedings are not paid and that the expenses of keeping the said lunatic are also over due and unpaid.

4. That it will be necessary therefore to sell the real estate of the said lunatic for her Support and the taxes and other reasonable expense incurred, including the expense of these proceedings, and other reasonable expenses which may hereafter be incurred by your Committee.

5. That the said property and real estate of the said lunatic consists of a fee Simple parcel of land, being a one half of lot No. 15, on the plat of the town of Annitsburg, Frederick County, Maryland, fronting thirty feet on Main Street in the said town and improved by an old log shanty, which is now inhabitable and rotting down and has not been occupied for a number of years.

Your petitioner therefore prays your Honor to pass an order authorizing her to sell the said real estate, and to apply the money received therefrom, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in his judgment, to the support of the said lunatic, and to the payment of the taxes due and in arrear of her estate, and the costs of this inquisition and of such other reasonable and proper expenses as have been or may hereafter be incurred for her.

And as in duty &c.
