

No 8128 Equity.

in his life-time, is he living or dead if dead, when did he die, and did he die testate or intestate?

Ans

Yes I knew John D. Biddinger he is dead and died Dec. 8th, 1906. and he left a last Will and testament. I look at Exhibit Marked #1, and it is a correct copy of his last Will and testament.

What real estate if any did leave at the time of his death?

Ans

He left a house and lot situated in New London Frederick County, Maryland, worth about $250 to 300. I look at Exhibit No. 2 and it is a deed correctly describing the property.

Who survived the said John D. Biddinger in whom the said real estate vested by the terms of Exhibit No. 1.

Ans.

His wife Lucinda D. Biddinger, an adult son Wesley Biddinger, who is single, and adult son Frank Biddinger who is unmarried, and adult daughter Ellen Tomson whose husbands name is James Tomson; and two infant children, Carollton Biddinger, and Lizzie Biddinger. All are residents of Frederick Co. Md. Except Mrs. Tomson and husband.

Mrs. John Biddinger indebted to any one at the time of his death, if yes, what, and in what manner, and has any indebtedness been incurred against this said

Ans.

R. B. Paulsen he owed $25 for Rumal Casket, Downey Hopkins for medical attendance $18. about I think, H. H. Hopkins medical attendance $40. Noah Barnes $20 J. L. Walker & Co. $25

Is the personal Estate left by the said John D. Biddinger sufficient to pay his indebtedness?

Ans

No, Sir, because the amount is very small worth about $50. It consists of nothing but a few house hold effects, that was appraised at $62-85 and in my opinion it will not bring as much at a sale.

In the Gen. Int.

Nothing More.
