5th.

Did she or not possess at the time of her decease sufficient personal estate to pay her debts and the costs of administration?

ans

She did not. Her personal estate was not and is not sufficient to pay her debts & the costs of administration. I am her administrator & her personal estate amounted to $110.20 and the claims filed and about to be filed against her estate that I know of amount to about $500= she owed me at the time of her death $185.00 which is due and owing and unpaid she owes also at the Frederick-ton Savings Institution $125.00 she also owes her doctors bills & funeral expenses and a number of small claims. My account is filed in this case as Exhibit #1, to the Bill. She also owes me $5.00 under the Terms of the Will of our Mother Margaret Adams decd - Margaret Ann Stone was the executrix of our Mother Margaret Adams and she died before fully administering on Mother's estate. The personal property which I have spoken of as amounting to $110.20 as to $35.00 of it, Margaret Ann Stone derived from our Mother Margaret Adams. She left unpaid a number of claims due from the estate of Margaret Adams to various creditors and the payment of these claims will have to be paid in full & the creditors of Margaret Ann Stone will have to be their pro-rata share of what is left.
