Surety on this note: is he not?
Yes Sir.
Did the Bank ever try to collect the note from John Wolfe and Margaret le Wolfe or either of them?
I think so but that is also under Mr Miller's direction or care.
Did the Bank bring suit against John Wolfe and Margaret le Wolfe to recover the amount of this note and if you did it obtain judgment against them?
I can not assure that question.
You have testified that this is the signature of Henry Eicholtz as Exhibit E. C. No. 2. Did you see Henry Eicholtz sign Exhibit E. C. No. 2. Did you see Henry Eicholtz sign that note?
I did not.
Did you see Henry Eicholtz sign Exhibit J. M. No.
No.
Did you see Henry Eicholtz sign Exhibit E. C. No. 1?
No.
What prompts you then to say that his signature appear upon the other Exhibits about which I have just questioned you?
my familiarity with his signature in connection with his signature to Exhibit E. C. No. 1. is witnessed and attested to by Mrs J. Black J. P. and the further fact all these signatures are identical.
Have you made any comparison of the signature on the 3 Exhibits just mentioned and those in the other transactions about which you testified? - I have not.
To the Hon Sub by the Examiner.
I can not.
Edwin L. Martell.

Adjourned to may 29. 1908.

Margaret le Wolfe, a witness of lawful age appeared on that part of the Plaintiff being duly sworn and examined depone and says as follows:-
State your name age and residence?
Margaret le Wolfe: 68 years: I live in Mechanics-town District in Frederick County:-
Are you related to John Wolfe?
John Wolfe was my husband.
Did you know Henry Eicholtz in his life time?
Yes Sir. Some a baby.
Was he related to you in any way?
No was my son-in-law.
Do you know of any money being borrowed from
