Ans Her died on Dec. 16th 1904. Henry Eckelty died on the 17th of October 1905. my husband died first.
 2x Sub Who obtained and owed the money on Exhibit. E. C. W. No 2.
 Ans Henry Eckelty got half of it; I suppose Wolfe used the other half. I didn't know.
 3x Sub You are a surety on this note, are you not? (Excerpted to).
 Ans Yes Sir.
 4x Sub Did the Bank ever request you to pay this note? -
 Ans Yes Sir.
 5x Sub Did the Bank see you on this note?
 Ans Yes Sir.
 6x Sub Had it never judgment against you?
 Ans No Sir.
 7x Sub You have testified that this note bears the signature of Henry Eckelty. How do you know that that is his signature?
 Ans Well, it looks like it, and I have a good deal of it at home. I would not like to swear it is, but at the same time it looks like it.
 8x Sub Of what does that a "good deal" of which you speak consist?
 Ans Of receipts where he gives Mrs. Wolfe and so on, when they dealt with when in the mill.
 9x Sub Did you compare the signature on the receipts and other papers with his signature on the note?
 Ans No, Sir; I did not.
 10x Sub Did you see Henry Eckelty sign this note?
 Ans I don't know whether I saw him sign that one or not. I saw him sign some of them.
 11x Sub Are you now willing to pay your share of this note? (Excerpted to).
 Ans I have nothing to pay with. I am not able. I would not be able to make my living if my boys would help me.

To the Gen Sub by the Examiner,
 Nothing further as far as I know.
 Margaret C. Wolfe

Note by the Examiner. It was agreed between Counsel that the receipt spoken of during the proceedings should be mailed by her to Mr. Roberts and filed in the case as part of her testimony and accordingly on May 29th 1908, the paper marked Exhibit x x 9, was handed to the Examiner and filed by him and they are herewith returned. Whereupon there being no other evidence to be examined and no further time being required for the production of evidence the said Examiner hereby certifies that the foregoing are the original deposition in this case by their infidelity.
