

NO. 8305, Equity.

5- Amanda E. Klein whose husband's name is George Klein both of whom are adults residing in Frederick County.

6- Mary Haines who is the wife of Harry Haines, both of whom are adults residing in Frederick County.

7. Bertha E. Statheis, the wife of Edward Statheis both of whom are adults residing in Frederick County.

8. Robert G. Bondow whose wife's name is Jeremiah

P. Bondow both of whom are adults and residents of the State of Texas, and

9. Susan J. Bondow who married Joshua Moleworth and who died since the father, leaving for said husband and the following children surviving her:-

1. Lewis L. Moleworth whose wife's name is Nellie F. Moleworth, both of whom are adults and reside in Frederick County.

2. Theodore H. Moleworth whose wife's name is Ethel V. Moleworth, both of whom are adults residing in the State of Texas.

3. Beulah D. Moleworth, who is unmarried and an adult residing in the State of Indiana.

4. Virgie R. Moleworth an infant; the former (Virgie) resides in Frederick County, and the latter (Ruby) resides in the State of Indiana. Their father Joshua Moleworth is an adult residing in Frederick County.

The said two contiguous tracts or parcels of land are not susceptible of division or partition among the parties in interest without loss and injury thereto because the same now constitute one farm with one set of buildings on it. I think it would be to the benefit and advantage of all the parties to have said land sold and the proceeds divided among them according to their respective interests.

To the Com. Sub. by the Examiner
