

No. 8306. Equity.

e. The defendant, an infant son, Russell H. Houg, residing in Carroll County, State of Maryland.
 6. That the ^{above} said real estate cannot be divided without great loss and injury to the parties interested therein and that the only way a division of the respective interests can be made is by a sale of the said lands and a division of the proceeds and it would be to the interest and advantage of the said infant and all the other parties to have the same sold and a division of the proceeds among them. And your orators pray for the following relief.

A. That a decree be passed for the sale of all the real estate aforementioned and the proceeds thereof, after the payment of the expenses incurred therein be distributed among the parties entitled thereto.

B. That your orators may have such other and further relief as the nature of this case may require.

And your orators pray for the following process: That the writ of Subpoena be issued out of your Honorable Court against said defendant Russell H. Houg, an infant of Carroll County, State of Maryland, commanding him to be and appear in your Honorable Court on some day certain to be named therein to answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed therein.

And as in duty bound will ever pray.
