

No 7399. Equity.

which she did not at the time, and who promised to repay the said sum of money to her, that the registered Letter covered by Exhibit No 8, was received by her said husband, John M. Thomas, then stopping at Thurston, Frederick Co Md, that is contained $49.<sup>50</sup> and her said husband added 10¢ it making $50. = which he handed to her she loaned the said to her and she loaned the same to the said William Williams deceased, who took it and used it agreeing to repay it to her, that all of said Exhibits are hereby made a part hereof, money loaned and used by the said Mamie Thomas in behalf of the said William Williams up to the time of his death and now now toward the care of his widow Mrs. Ann Williams.

Affiant further states that the claim for services rendered is just and reasonable, that she rendered the same in good faith and while no fixed price for same was named it was agreed and understood by and between this affiant and the said William Williams deceased, that she should be compensated therefore, that the amount charged by her is less than a fair valuation of the said services would entitle her to.

Affiant further states that the entire claim and account above stated is just and true, and that she hath not received any part of the money stated is just and true, and that she hath not received any part of the money stated to be due nor the payment for any of said services claimed for any said services, claimed for, or any security or satisfaction for the same.
