

No. 7399. Equity.

3rd The children of Ellen Morgan a sister of Ann Williams, and who died in the lifetime of the latter, as follows:
Ann M. Hughes wife of John M. Hughes, Maggie Joseph, wife of Robert Joseph and Hughes Hughes Thomas, mentioned in the bill as Hugh Hughes. They are all adults and all reside in the State of Maine.

7. Did the said William Williams or Ann Williams either one leave a will?

Ans. No Sir, they both died intestate.

8. Was the said William Williams indebted to you if so for what and in what amount?

Ans. Yes Sir, he was indebted to me for money loaned by me to him in various amounts aggregating $1460.00 and also for services rendered by me to him during a period of over 16 years at $100.00 per year aggregating $1650.00 for services rendered making an aggregate of $3110.00 which the said William Williams was indebted to me at the time of his death. I often received money from my husband and father, which I loaned to my uncle William Williams, the latter an amount of the said loan correctly stated my account which is filed is herewith filed with the examiner as evidence.

To Marked filed by Examiner the services I have mentioned consisted of all kinds of household work, milking cows, and other indoor house work, and attending to the stock and other outdoor farm work. These services were reasonably worth $100.00 per year I rendered these services in my own behalf and independently of my husband and with that understanding between my husband and myself. The money I loaned to my uncle as above stated was my own separate money. No part of this claim of $3110.00 has ever been paid, and the whole amount is still due and owing to me.

To the General Interrogatory propounded by the Examiner
Ans. Nothing more.
