

No. 8315. Equity.

That William H. Biggs, Joshua Edgar Biggs, Sarah May Robertson and John A. Robertson, her husband, and Phebe J. Biggs have filed an Answer to the Bill of Complaint:— That the Bill of Complaint had been ordered to be taken pro Confesso as against the respondents, Annabelle Biggs, wife of William H. Biggs, wife of William H. Biggs, and against Thomas Bruce Biggs and that an Answer had been filed by the Guardian ad Litem, for and on behalf of the infant respondents, James Morris Biggs, Robert Henry Biggs, Beulah McDonald Biggs, Annabelle Ruth Biggs, Dorothy C. Biggs, Mildred H. Biggs, Thordian C. Biggs and Richard D. Biggs:— and a Replication to the answer of said infant Defendants, and to the Answer of all other Defendants, who have filed an answer, has <sup>been</sup> filed:— and the cause is now at issue: and it is necessary that testimony be taken by your Petitioners as Plaintiffs to substantiate the matters and facts alleged in the Bill of Complaint:—

Therefore your Petitioners as Plaintiffs pray that your Honors will refer the papers in this cause to one of the Examiners of your Honorable Court for the purpose of taking such testimony as may be submitted before him by your Petitioners, or any of the other parties to this cause.

And as in duty bound, etc.
Robert Biggs,
Solicitors for Petitioners.

Court's order.

ON the foregoing Petition it is ordered by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, Maryland sitting as a Court of Equity, on the eighth day of December in the year nineteen hundred and eight, that this cause be and the same is hereby referred to Albert S. Brown, one of the Standing Examiners of this Court, for the purpose of taking such testimony as may be submitted before him by the Plaintiffs, and others interested in this cause.

John C. Meeter.