

NO. 8377. Equity.

How long after the death of your Aunt Lydia did you live in the house?

Ans. I left there 27 years ago, when I was married and have not lived in the house since.

Who was living in house in the house at the time of your Aunt Lydia's death?

Ans. Mrs. Bouzoku, her name and Miss Harkman a lady living with me when I was sent there to help to take care of her.

How long after your Aunt's death did you seek the property?

Ans. About two weeks, it was not very long.

What time in 1905, did she die?

Ans. Feb. 13th 1905.

Who were the parties you spoke to about the barn roof, who told you it could not be repaired?

Ans. Mr. John Smith, a carpenter.

9th.

When did he tell you this?

Ans. Last Summer one year ago.

10th.

You mean 1907.

Ans. I do. I spoke to him several times.

11th.

Did he tell you this the first time or the last time you spoke to him?

Ans. He told me about the same each time. I spoke to him. The barn is real high. It takes ladders tied together to get in repairs. The roof. I don't think he wanted to repair it, because it was dangerous.

12th.

You say the Church field fencing is bad. Who are the owners of the adjoining land?

Ans. Mr. Flook owns on two sides of the public road, on the other two sides.

13th.

Is the fencing bad along the public road or between you and Mr. Flook?

Ans. I do not know how it is between Mr. Flook