

No. 8537. Equity

Maryland, which is fully described in a deed from Carlton E. Bland & wife to the said John W. Cooley, of date December 1st, 1898 and duly recorded in Liber D. D. No. 3, folio 197 one of the land records of Frederick County, a Certified Copy of which deed is herewith filed as part hereof and marked Exhibit J. H. C.

And that the said John W. Cooley deceased, left surviving him, a widow, your Oratrix, Sarah E. Cooley, and the following children, Ernest G. Cooley, Vergie Lambark, who intermarried with Clarence Lambark, Minnie E. Trail, who intermarried with John W. Trail, all adults, residents of Frederick County, Maryland.

And your Oratrix prays for the following relief:

That your Honors will pass a decree for the sale of said Real Estate mentioned in these proceedings, and out of the proceeds arising from the sale thereof, after all proper costs taxes and charges of these proceedings are paid, direct the payments in full (if sufficient) there be of such amount as may appear to have been paid by your Oratrix for and on account of said herein mentioned Mortgage and note, and as subrogated to the rights of said Mortgage. And after the payment of said claims, if any surplus there be, to apply the same as far as requisite, or in proportion to the payments of the balance of your Oratrix claims and such other claims as may be fully proven and filed in these proceedings by claimants who may come in and contribute to the expenses of this suit.

And your Oratrix prays that your Honorable Court will grant unto her all such other and further relief, to which she may be entitled, and the nature of her case may require.

And your Oratrix prays that your Honorable Court will grant unto her all such other and further relief, to which she may be entitled, and the nature of her case may require.

And your Oratrix prays for the following process. That the writ of Subpoena may issue out of your Honorable Court in the usual form directed to the said Ernest G. Cooley, Vergie Lambark, and Clarence Lambark, by husbands, Minnie E. Trail, and John W. Trail, her husbands, all adult residents of Frederick County, Maryland, commanding them and each of them to appear on some day certain, to be therein named, to answer the premises and show cause if any they have.