

No. 8637. Equity

18th.

about what was the value of these articles?

Ans.

The horse was worth $75⁰⁰ or $100⁰⁰ and the wagon $80⁰⁰ or $100⁰⁰

19th.

Do you know what debts your Father owed at the time of his death?—

Ans.

He owed Mrs. Tyson for Fertilizer. I don't know exactly how much. I think it was $35⁰⁰. I was worth my step mother when she settled it. Then he had little store bills, and he owed $85⁰⁰ for a horse he hadn't paid for; and there was a mortgage on his live farm.

20th.

Do you know whether he was indebted to his mother, Elizabeth A. Cooley?

Ans.

Yes, Sir, he was.

21st.

State how much that was?—

Ans.

One hundred and fifty dollars.

22^d

Was that indebtedness in a note?— or how?—

Ans.

It was money he borrowed of her & she had his note for $125⁰⁰ of the amount, the rest was in open accounts.

23rd

These debts that you have mentioned your Father owed at the time of his death were aside from any debts due by your Father to Sarah E. Cooley were they not?—

Ans.

Yes, Sir—

24th.

Do you know what your Father's funeral expenses was?—

Ans.

Between $50⁰⁰ and $60⁰⁰

25th.

Did that include a Tombstone Cost?—

Ans.

No, Sir.

26th.

What did the Tombstone Cost?—

Ans.

Forty dollars.