

No. 8387 Equity.

The Answer of Gertrude V. DeGrange both individually and as Administratrix de bonis non cum Testamento annexo of the Estate of Daniel W. E. DeGrange, and Grace E. Hilde filed against her and others, in the above case respectively shows that she admits the allegations of the said Bill and consents that the real estate therein mentioned shall be sold by a trustee to be appointed by decree of some Honorable Court of the State of Maryland.

Gertrude V. DeGrange.

Petition and Courts Order.
To Issue Subpoena.

Filed February 8th 1909.

To the Honorable the Judges of Said Court:-

Your Petitioners the Plaintiffs in the above case, respectfully show
1. That in their Bill of Complaint in the above case in which Herman Fletcher DeGrange, an infant, is made a party defendant they allege that said infant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, residing in the State of West Virginia, and ask for an order of Publication against him.

2. That the mother of said Herman Fletcher DeGrange has informed your Petitioners' Solicitors that her said infant son will come to Frederick to be personally served with a subpoena in the above case, to avoid the costs of an order of Publication, wherefore your Petitioners pray your Honors to Order the Clerk to issue a subpoena in the usual form against said Herman Fletcher DeGrange instead of an order of Publication; and that they may have all such other and further relief to which they may be entitled, they will ever pray.

Under and Under

Solicitors for Petitioners,

Courts Order.

Upon the foregoing Petition, It is ordered by the Court this 8th day of February A. D. 1909, that the Clerk issue a subpoena as prayed in the foregoing Petition.

J. C. Motter,

Subpoena.

State of Maryland, Frederick County, Md:-
