Petition of Fannie J. Waters

et al. Filed Jan 21-1910

The petition of Fannie J. Waters, William H. Sawson, Hattie C. King, Winnie E. King, Lollar M. King, Margaret Furgess, Charles H. Lewis and Tillmore Lewis, his heirs at law and next of kin of James H. Sawson, late of Frederick County, deceased, respectfully represents unto your Honors:

1. That they are children and grandchildren of the late James H. Sawson and as such entitled to a share in his estate, as by reference to his last will and Testament will appear.

2. That Glenn H. Worthington and John Sawson have been appointed by your Honorable Court Trustees to make sale of the real estate of said decedent, and one of them Glenn H. Worthington is ready to proceed to advertise and sell the real estate as soon as may be convenient, as is the desire of all of your petitioners, but that the co-trustee, John Sawson, refuses to act in the matter and declines to join in an advertisement of the property, whereby your petitioners declare that they are being injured, and they assert that as the said co-trustee one of the parties, it is from personal motives that he desires to off the sale thereof to the detriment and injury of your petitioners. And your petitioners pray your Honors to authorize Glenn H. Worthington to proceed forthwith to advertise and sell the said real estate, unless this co-trustee will promptly unite in making the said sale.

And as in duty bound I c.

Answer of John Sawson

to Petition of Fannie Waters &

Others filed Jan'y 21-10.

Filed Jan 24-1910.

To the Honorable the Judges of said Court:-

The Answer of John Sawson, Trustee in the above entitled cause, to the Petition of Fannie Waters and others, filed January 21st, 1910, respectfully shows unto your Honors:

1. That he denies that he has refused or refuses to act in this case as Trustee, and says that as a matter of fact, he filed his bond in your Honorable Court and qualified as Trustee on January 20th A.D. 1910. Whereas the said Glenn H. Worthington, Esq., his co-Trustee, and did not qualify as such by filing his bond in this case until two days later, to-wit: January 22nd,
