

No 8602. Equity.

by making the executors of Sarah E Song parties to this Cause as representative of the interests of your Petitioners on said petition an order was passed making said executors of said Sarah E Song parties according to right.

And that your Petitioner is advised, believes and so charges, that it is not represented merely because the executors of said Sarah E Song have been made parties, and that said Sarah E Song having merely executed a power of appointment given her under will of the husband, your Petitioner takes under the will of the husband and the personal representative of the widow, is not a proper representative of the interests of your Petitioner.

Wherefore your Petitioner prays your Honors to pass an order permitting it to intervene in said Cause and file its answer to the Bill.

And as in duty re.

John S. Newnam.

Sol. for Petitioner.

Court's Order.

The foregoing petition having, by the Court, been read and considered, it is thereupon this 22nd day of November in the year nineteen hundred and ten, by the Circuit for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity and by the authority thereof, ordered and adjudged that the Petitioner The Board of Home Missions of the Reformed Church in the United States, be and it is hereby permitted to intervene in this Cause, and to file its answer to the Bill.

Honorable Waver.

Answer of Board of Home
Missions of the Reformed
Church in the United States

Dated Nov. 23-1910

The answer of the Board of Home Missions of the Reformed Church in the United States, a body corporate, duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, to the Bill of Complaint, in the above entitled Cause,

This respondent answering said Bill answers and states:

That not being advised as to who are the heirs at law of Josephus Song deceased, it can neither admit nor deny the allegations of the bill in reference to the relationship, age, place of residence and names of those alleged to be heirs of said decedent, but that it knows nothing which would lead it to believe that there are either other or different heirs from
