

No 3796 Equity.

wholly refused to pay any part of the aforesaid personal estate in their hands, and your orator is unable to obtain adequate relief against them or against the aforesaid real estate without the aid of this Court.

To the end therefore

- (1) That the said administrators may set forth an account of the personal estate of their intestate, and the amount and the particulars thereof possessed by them, and what part thereof is now in their hands, and how much thereof has been disposed of by them in payment of any intestate's debts or otherwise; and what debts and to what amount remain unsatisfied.
- (2) And that the other defendants, heirs at law of the said Evan J. Snader, may discover all and singular the real estate of which the said Evan J. Snader was seized or entitled to at the time of his death; and where the same and every part thereof is or are situated.

3 That an account may be taken under the direction of this Court of the said debt due as aforesaid to your orator, and of all other debts which were owing by the said intestate at the time of his death, and which still remain unpaid, and also of the personal estate and effects of the said intestate, for the use of the said administrators.

(4) That the said personal estate may be applied in due course of administration in payment of the debt due to your orator and all other creditors who may come in and contribute to the expense of this suit.

(5) That the aforesaid real estate of the said Evan J. Snader, deceased, or so much thereof or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose may be decreed to be sold for the payment of so much of the aforesaid debts as still remain unsatisfied by the application of the personal estate as aforesaid.

(6) That your orator the order of publication, giving notice to the said Edwin E. Snader and Sda E. Snader, his wife of the State of Pennsylvania, and the said Harriet M. Snader, of this State, of the object and substance of this bill, and requiring them to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before a certain day, to be named therein to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed; and also the writ of Subpoena directed to the said Laura Kiger's, wife of Milton O. Kiger's, Abram J. Snader and Mary Snader, his wife, Sda M. Snader, Olive A. Snader, Murray J. Snader and Thomas Clayton Snader
