A. I am married and my wife's name is Annie.

Q. Did you know or can you state the length of time during which your father lived on the property near Jefferson?

A. Since 1850, at least. I think he was there before that time.

Q. To your knowledge did your father ever have a deed to this property?

A. Not that I know of. I don't know.

Q. Look at Exhibit A, now shown you. It is a deed from William Hilleary and Perry Hilleary to Henry Wade. State whether this deed describes the property which was occupied by your father?

A. It does.

Q. Where does this lie?

A. It lies in Jefferson District on the road, leading from Mother's Cross roads to the intersection with the intersection with the Jefferson Turnpike road, about, a mile East of Jefferson.

Q. Who paid the taxes upon this farm from 1850, until the time of your father's death?

A. He did, he paid them all the time. He sent me in more than once to pay them, when he could not come.

Q. Who received the income and profits from the farm?
