

W.D. 8869. Equity.

and after Emma Himmel signed it, it was left in my possession for safe keeping and I've had it ever since, until it was turned over to the Bill of Complaint in this cause. This dwelling house and lot is on West South Street in this city, and is worth about $1300⁰⁰. Emma Himmel left no personal property, that I know of no letters of Administration were taken out on her estate, for she had none. The Exhibits "E. H." and "C. L." were executed at the same time, and were part of the same transaction.
