George L. Grenman
Complainants

vs.

Baltimore & Washington
White Cross Milk Company a Corporation.
Defendant

Equity No.

To the Chancellor of the State of Delaware:—

The Complainants respectfully state to the Court as follows:—

1. That the Complainants Frank B. Swash and George L Grenman are Citizens of the United States and residents of the District of Columbia, and each sues in his own right.

2. That the defendant, Baltimore & Washington White Cross Milk Company is a Corporation, Organized and existing under and by virtue of the Laws of the State of Delaware, and doing business in the State of Maryland and the District of Columbia and said Corporation is sued in its own right.

3. That during the year 1912, the Complainant Frank B. Swash furnished to said defendant in the City of Washington, D.C., feed and supplies amounting in price and value to the sum of $443.97. for which the defendant agreed to pay the said Complainant, Frank B. Swash, the sum of $443.47. but that although the time for payment has passed, and the Complainant, Frank B. Swash has demanded payment for said feed and supplies as agreed the defendant has refused and still refuses to pay for the same and there is now due and owing the sum of from the defendant to the Complainant, Frank B. Swash without set off or just grounds of defense, the full sum of $443.97. and although thereon from June 1912.

4. That the Complainant, George L. Grenman, under a Contract made between the defendant and himself entered into the employment of the defendant
