

No. 8851. Equity

Petition of Carrie Leary
to be made party,
defendant and courts
order on same.

To the Honorable the Judges of Said Courts.
The Petition of Carroll Leary, wife of Jesse Leary respectfully represents that she has become married to the said Jesse Leary since the following, or the filing of the original and amended Bill of Complaint in this Cause and your Petitioner is advised that it is right and proper that she should be made a party to this Cause.

Therefore your Petitioner prays your Honor, to pass an order of your Honorable Court, authorizing and permitting her to become a party defendant, in order that she may appear and file an answer in this Cause.

And as in duty bound &c. etc.
Carrie R. Leary.

Courts Order.

The aforesaid petition having been read and duly considered it is thereupon this 22^d day of March 1910, ordered by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, Maryland, sitting in Equity, and by the authority thereof, that Carrie R. Leary, wife of Jesse Leary, be and she is hereby made a party defendant in the above Cause.

Glenn H. Worthington.

Petition of Zoe H. Speck. to be made party defendant
and courts order same.

To the Honorable, the Judges of said Court.
The Petition of Zoe H. Speck, wife of J. J. Speck, of Quanah, Hardman County, Texas, respectfully represents that she is the wife of the said J. J. Speck, and as such it is proper and necessary for her to be made a party to the above Cause, and she therefore prays Your Honor to pass and order of your Honorable Court authorizing and permitting her to be made a party defendant to the above Cause.

Filed Oct 27/910
And as in duty bound &c. etc.
Zoe H. Speck.