

No. 8984. Equity.

Q. Who, if any person, was appointed to be Trustee in his Grace after his death?

A. No one, but myself I directed the management of the trust estate and rented it out to tenants and annually received the net rents, issues, profits, and incomes arising therefrom until this time.

Q. On the death of your husband, Cyrus A. Foot, did he leave any children or descendants of any children, and if not, who were his nearest kinsman or heirs at law?

A. He never had any child or descendants of any child, and at the time of his death, he being a son of Peter Foot, deceased, the oldest son of Peter Foot being George H. Foot, who died in and about the year 1890, and the said George H. Foot, leaving surviving him a son, Clayton C. Foot, who was the oldest son of the said George H. Foot, who was a brother of the whole blood of my husband, Cyrus A. Foot, I believe and am informed that the said Clayton C. Foot, who is now living in Frederick City, Maryland, was and is the common law heir at law of my deceased husband, Cyrus A. Foot.

Q. Are you yet the widow of the said Cyrus A. Foot, and has any child at any time been born to you?

A. I am yet the widow of said Cyrus A. Foot; I was born on the date, March 19, A.D. 1848, and no child has ever been born unto me.

Q. Is your sister, Fannie Ripley, who was named in the last will of your father, living, and if not, when did she die and did she leave any children surviving her?

A. My sister Fannie Ripley, died May 9, 1887, and she left surviving her four children, the names of them being; Ruth J. Ripley, a daughter, who died in the year 1889, an infant aged about 1 1/2 years; William R. Ripley, a son, who is now aged about 36 years; Susan J. Ripley, a daughter who is an adult aged about 34 years, and Gilbert King Ripley, a son, who is now aged about 30 years.

Q. Where does William R. Ripley reside, is he married and has he any children?

A. He is married and his wife's name is Ida Ripley. He has an infant son about two years old, William Ransburg Ripley, who resides with his father in Chicago, Ill, and who is the only child of said William R. Ripley Sr.
