

No. 8940. Equity.

I believe it to be the interest benefit and advantage of the said infant children of Henry C. Cook that said property be sold and after paying the expenses incident to these proceedings that the fund be invested for the use and benefit of said infants in my opinion the sale made by the said Clara E. Cook, on behalf of said infants, of the property of the property and premises mentioned in Exhibit "A" is a fair and reasonable sale, and that the price obtained from the purchaser, Mrs. Belva W. E. Birney, of eighteen hundred dollars is a good price and that said sale should be ratified to the General Interrogatory, pronounced by the Examiner and nothing further.

Charles M. Cook.
