PETITION OF PLAINTIFFS TO HAVE ADA CLINE AND CALVIN CLINE HER HUSBAND MADE PARTIES PLAINTIFF AND COURT'S ORDER THEREON.

To the Honorable the judges of said Court--

The petition of James Lizer and Melzina Lizer, his wife, Carrie King and John W. King, her husband Ella Dosh, widow, Jonathan Kline, husband of Martha Kline, deceased, Carma Ridenour and Guy Ridenour, her husband, Alma Stottlemeyer and Aquilla Stottlemeyer, her husband, Plaintiffs in the above entitled cause, respectfully shows unto Your Honors--

1st. That the second paragraph of the Bill of Complaint sets forth that Solomon Lizer died leaving surviving him a son, David Lizer, who also died about seven years ago leaving surviving him a widow, Clara Lizer, one of the defendants, and the following children--Carma, an adult daughter, who intermarried with Guy Ridenour; Alma, an adult daughter, who intermarried with Aquilla Stottlemeyer; also three minor children as follows--Bickford Lizer, a son about eighteen years, Calmeda Lizer, a daughter aged about fifteen years, and Maggie Lizer, a daughter aged about twelve years.

2nd. That in addition to the above named children the said David Lizer left surviving him an adult daughter, Ada Cline, who intermarried with Calvin Cline, who are parties in interest in this cause but who have been omitted to be joined herein.

wherefore your petitioners pray that the said Ada Cline and Calvin Cline, her husband, may be made parties Plaintiff to the said Bill of Complaint.

And as in duty etc.
