

against them and others in Your Honorable Court Exhibited.

These respondents for answer say, that they admit the matters and things set forth in said Bill of Complaint and they hereby consent to the passage of a decree as therein prayed, with the reservation that in the event Your Honorable Court passes a decree for the sale of the real estate mentioned in these proceedings that a family burying ground located on said premises be not sold by the trustees to be appointed by Your Honorable Court, and it is the further wish of these respondents that they be represented in the trusteeship.

Rene S. Harp,

Solicitor for respondents.

ANSWER TO BILL OF COMPLAINT OF ANNIE E. HARGETT, MARGARET E. HITESHEW & HUSBAND.

To the Honorable the Judges of said Court--

The answer of Annie E. Hargett, widow, Margaret Hiteshew and P. Mehrle Hiteshew, her husband, to the Bill of Complaint of Elizabeth A. Keller against them and others in Your Honorable Court, exhibited, respectfully shows unto Your Honors--

These respondents admit the matters and things set forth in said Bill of Complaint, and they hereby consent to the passage of such decree as is therein prayed and as may seem right and equitable to Your Honorable Court.

That these respondents are advised that they are remaindermen in the real estate mentioned to the extent of a one-fifth at least undivided interest therein, or to the fund realized from a sale thereof and pray Your Honorable Court that it may grant to these respondents a representation in the trusteeship to be appointed by Your Honorable Court, to make sale of said real estate.

And as in duty bound etc.

D. Princeton Buckey
