

give and bequest as follows--intending to charge the said mixed fund with the following legacies, I give and bequeath to my daughter Elva W. Davis, wife of Joab Davis, the sum of Two Thousand, eight hundred and ninety-six dollars, with interest from the death of my wife, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Miranda E. Bowyer the sum of ninety one dollars with interest from the death of my wife, I give and bequeath unto my son William J. Kindley the sum of Four Hundred and forty six dollars with interest from the death of my wife, I give and bequeath unto my son Sebastian Kindley the sum of Two Hundred and one dollars with interest from the death of my wife, and I give and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate to my daughter Miranda E. Boyer, my son George Frederick Kindley, my son William J. Kindley, my son Sebastian Kindley and my Daughter Elva W. Davis, equally to be divided among them share and share alike,-
And lastly I constitute and appoint my wife Hepzibad kindley, Executrix and my son George F. Kindley executor of this my last will and testament, and should my son George F. Kindley die before her mother or die before he has fully executed the trusts of this my last will I constitute and appoint william J. Kindley, Executor in his staed, with full power to execute all the trusts of this my will, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In testimony whereof I George F. Kindley have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this eighth day of November in the year eighteen hundred and sixty seven

George F. Kindley Sr (seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by George F. Kindley the within named testator in our presence, as and for his last will and testament who at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.

W. J. Ross

Henry Lorentz

Charles W. Ross

Maryland, Frederick County towit--

On this 26th day of February 1887 came George F. Kindley, Jr., and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that the foregoing instrument of writings are true and whole will and testament and codicils of George F. Kindley, Sr., late of Frederick County, Maryland, deceased, that have come to his hands and possession, that he received the same from the office of the register of Wills where they had been placed by the testator for sale keeping and that he does not know of any others of a later date.

Test--

Hamilton Lindsay

Register of Wills for Frederick County Md.

State of Maryland, Frederick County, towit--

On the 28th day of Februart 1887 came Henry lorentz and Charles W. Ross, two of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last will and testament of George F. Kindley Sr., late of Frederick County, Maryland, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangelg of Almighty God, that they did see Geo. F. Kindley Sr., the testator therein named, sign and seal this will, that they heard him publish pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament; that at the time of his so doing, he was to the best of their apprehension of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and capable of executing a valid deed or contract, and that they respectively subscribe their names as witnesses to said will, in the presenee of and at the request of the testator and that they did also see Wm. J. Ross, now deceased, the other subscribing witness sign his name as witness to said Will at the request of the testator, in his presenee, and all in the presence of each other.