

State of Maryland, Frederick County, towit--

On the 28th day of February 1887 came Charles W. Ross and Henry C. Naill two of the subscribing witnesses to the codicil of the aforesaid last will and testament of George F. Kindley Sr., late of Frederick County, Maryland, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that they did see George F. Kindley Sr., the testator therein named, sign and seal this codicil to this Will, that they heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his codicil to his last will and testament; that at the time of his so doing, he was to the best of their apprehension, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and capable of executing a valid deed or contract, and that they respectfully subscribed their names as witnesses to said codicil to said will, in the presence of and at the request of the testator, and that they did also see Wm. J. Ross, now deceased, the other subscribing witness, sign his name as witness to said Codicil to said will at the request of the testator, in his presence, and in the presence of each other.
