

the same is hereby referred to the Auditor of the Court who will state an account in which he will allow unto the trustees the usual chancery commissions, and also a solicitor's fee to the Plaintiff's solicitor, and all usual and proper charges of sale, and will return his report to this Court for its further action.

Glenn H. Worthington.

-----o-----