

Q. Was he crippled during the 14 years he kept a restaurant?

A. Yes sir he was.

Q. What limb was off?

A. Left limb.

Q. Did Mr. Bond cook Mr. Ridenbaugh's meals every day he was there? (Objection as to leading.)

A. Yes sir he did.

Q. What kind of a business did Mr. Ridenbaugh do with reference to size, was it large or small?

A. He done a very good business there.

Q. Do you know what time Mr. Bond came to work in the mornings?

A. Mr. Bond stayed there every night with him in the house.

Q. What did he have to sleep on?

A. I do not know what he slept on.

Q. How do you know he slept there at nights?

A. I would see him there at nights when they closed up.

Q. Was this a store room where he had the restaurant?

A. No sir it was a dwelling house.

Q. any windows in the house?

A. yes sir.

Q. Who washed the windows in the house?

A. Mr. Bond.

Q. What other service if any did Mr. Bond render Mr. Ridenbaugh?

A. Well I don not know.

Q. When he was sick who served his meals? (Objection)

A. I do not know that, I don't think he ate anything for three days when he was so sick there.

Q. Did you ever have any conversation with Mr. Ridenbaugh in regard to Mr. Bond? (Objection).

A. Yes sir several times.

Q. Tell us what Mr. Ridenbaugh said in this conversation as to the service of Mr. Bond? (Objection.)

A. Mr. Ridenbaugh said when he died he did not want any of his relations to have anything, that they would not come around to see him and he said Mr Bond stuck by him and he would do well by him when he died.

Q. What else did he say about Mr. Bond? (Objection)

A. He said that Mr. Bond had stuck to him and he was going to stick to him when he died.

Q. How often did you talk to Mr. Ridenbaugh on that subject?

A. Several times.

Q. he told you this several times? (Objection)

A. Yes sir he did.

Q. Did he ever tell you what all Mr. Bond was doing for him? (Objection)

A. No sir he did not.

Q. Did you have a conversation with him shortly before he went to the Hospital before he was taken to Bears? (Objection)

A. No sir.

Q. Do you know the value of such services as you have narrated them that Mr. Bond rendered in that community per day? (Objection)

A. I think he should have at least one dollar a day.

Q. Do you know?

A. yes sir.

Q. One dollar a day for all the work he done there?

A. Yes sir.