

- A. Of late he did not keep open on Sunday.
- Q. How often did you see Mr. Bond scrubbing the floors?
- A. I do not know how many times.
- Q. What time did the place open in the mornings?
- A. About 7 o'clock and kept open to 11.30 and 12 o'clock.
- Q. Did Mr. Ridenbaugh sleep there?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did Mr. Bond do any of the cooking?
- A. I seen him do some; boil potatoes.
- Q. Do you know about how long Mr. Bond was working there altogether?
- A. I do not know.
- Q. A number of years?
- A. Quite a long time, about 12 years off and on, he would go away some times for a short time and then come back again.
- Q. Did you ever hear Mr. Ridenbaugh say anything else about him?
- A. No sir.
- Q. You say your little boy worked there?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Who waited on the customers when they came in there?
- A. My little boy. Mr. Bond was there helping him.
- Q. Did you ever see Mr. Bond waiting on people? (Objection)
- A. Yes sir
- Q. He served the meals? (Objection)
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Scrubbing the floors and sweeping? (Objection)
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Are there any windows in the place? (Objection)
- A. yes sir.
- Q. Did you see Mr. Bond clean the windows?
- A. No sir.
- Q. Do you know the value of such services up there?
- A. No sir indeed I do not.
- Q. What in your judgment would be a reasonable compensation for those services? (Objection)
- A. I would say $@.00 a day.
- Q. Do you know whether Mr. Ridenbaugh was sick at any time prior to his last illness?
- A. Yes sir, he would be feeling badly, he had stomach trouble.
- Q. Would Mr. Bond wait on him then? (Objection)
- A. yes sir he did.
- Q. What did he do?
- A. I do not know, I was not there all the time.
- Q. What was wrong with Mr. Ridenbaugh at that time?
- A. he had stomach trouble.
- Q. Was the doctor attending him?
- A. Some times yes sir.
- Q. Was there any other services you saw Mr. Bond render?
- A. That is about all.
- Q. he done the work about the restaurant?
- A. Yes sir.