

8. Who do you mean by Toy?

A. His brother.

9. Did you ever see Charlie Bond there working?

A. No sir.

10. During what time were you living over the restauraht and how long did you live there?

A. I judge about two years.

11. About how long ago was it?

A. I guess it has veen two and ahalf years ago.

12. Then it was probably the years 1910 and 1911.

A. Somewhere along there.

Cross examination by Mr. Weinberg.

1x. Do you remember when Mr. Samuel Ridenbaugh died?

A. Yes sir.

2x. It was in July 1912, wasn't it?

A. i think it was.

3x. Do you know Mr. Bond?

A. yes sir.

4x. You say you never saw him there?

A. I never saw him working there, and to the best of my knowledge I don't know if i ever saw him in there while I lived there. I have known Mr. Bond almost as long as I have Mr. Ridenbaugh.

5x. You don't mean to swear he never was in there?

A. I wouldn't swpar to that.

6x. Or thtat he never worked there?

A. I wouldn't swear to that.

7x. I mean though while you were there?

A. Yes sir, to the best of my knowledge I would swear I never seen him work there while I lived in the building.

8x. What time did you retire at night?

A. Well it was pretty late, it has been as late as 12 o'clock because lots of times I would be looking after Sam and he would be drunk. he told me time and time again that I was better than a sister to him; I neglected my work to look after him; my husband would be home and I would stay up and help Sam with his work; i never went to bed earlier than ten o'clock and never later than twelve.

9x. Did he ever pay you anything for it?

A. No sir.

10x. Ever expect him to pay you for it?

A. I kind of thought some day he would reward me; he often said he would remember me some day, he never would forget him. I know he appreciated what I done and I know Sam did like me in a way, and he told me time andtime again he would never forget him. I know he never gave me anything for what I did and I know I did more than anyone i know of. I was a mother to him; I nursed him through thick and thin, drunk and sober.

11x. How often were you in his place helping him?

A. All day long until bed time at night.

12x. During this entire period of two years?

A. yes sir.

13x. You were there day and night?
