

A. Yes sir.

14x. Wait on the table at the restaurant?

A. Yes sir, I took orders from those people at the table when he would be too drunk to do it; the only thing I didn't do was serve them at the table. I have washed dishes, scrubbed house, cleaned house, sewed for him, washed for him and ironed for him.

15x. You say when he was drunk you would help him?

A. more so than at any other time.

16x. was it often he was drunk?

A. I think it was.

17x. Have you had any understanding with the administratrix, Mrs. Potts, as to being compensated for your services?

A. No sir.

18x. Did she ask you to testify here today?

A. She was at my house Sunday and asked me if I was summoned.

19x. Did you tell any one that you had helped Mr. Ridenbaugh in his place? (Excepted to)

A. I had told several people.

20x. Did you tell Mr. DeLanter what you knew about this case before he summoned you?

A. Not until he summoned me.

21x. Did you tell Mrs. Potts about it?

A. I told her on Sunday. I considered I done more for Sam than anybody in the whole town.

22x. That was in 1911 and 1912?

A. yes sir.

23x. When did you move there Mrs. Myers?

A. I don't remember the date, even the year, but I know I lived there about two years.

24x. You remember whether you moved there in April?

A. I can't answer that question.

25x. You say you never even saw Charlie Bond around there during that period?

A. To the best of my knowledge I don't know as I ever saw him working around there, and to the best of my knowledge I never saw him in the place. They told me that Charlie Bond did work there but that I don't know.

26x. You didn't see him there?

A. No sir.

27x. That was in 1911 and 1912.

A. Yes sir.

28x. Were you living there at the time he died?

A. No sir.

29x. How long had you been living upon the hill before Samuel Ridenbaugh died?

A. I don't know; we have been living on the hill altogether and in that place about two and a half years.

30x. Was it six months before he died that you lived on the hill?

A. I don't know.

31x. Was it three months?

A. I don't know.

32x. Haven't you any rent book?

A. No sir.

33x. Who do you rent from?

A. We rent from Mr. John Hankey, and the way of it is we always kept the last receipt until the next payment and then we destroyed it.

34x. Have you got the very last receipt?

A. I didn't look for it, I don't know whether I destroyed it or not.
