

35x. How far is the hill of which you speak from this restaurant?

A. About a quarter of a mile.

36x. Can you give us some definite idea how long before his death it was--he died in July 1912--that you moved away; in April 1912?

A. I don't know.

37x. Who did you rent from when you lived at the restaurant?

A. Mr. Hudson, the man who lives here in Frederick.

38x. From whom did you rent the house on the Hill?

A. John Hankey.

39x. Did you rent from anybody else before you rented from Mr. Hankey?

A. I don't know where I did live after I moved out of Sams building.

40x. You are sure you rented the house on the hill from Mr. Hankey?

A. Certainly.

41x. Was that the first house you rented after you moved away from the restaurant?

A. No, Mr. Harry Mehrling's.

42x. When was that?

A. After I left the restaurant.

43x. 1912 or 1911.

A. Somewhere along there, I don't know the date.

44x. Could it have been as much as a year before Sam died that you moved out of the restaurant?

A. I don't believe it was that long to the best of my knowledge.

45x. Six months?

A. I believe it was longer than six months but I don't believe it was a year.

46x. You know how long you lived in Mehrling's house?

A. No sir.

47x. You say that during this period that you were helping there, living over the restaurant, that Toy Ridenbaugh died?

A. Yes sir.

48x. You remember when he died?

A. Yes sir.

49x. When?

A. I don't know the time.

50x. About how long before Samuel Ridenbaugh died?

A. I can't tell you that either.

51x. When did you move there over the restaurant?

A. I can't tell you that, I don't know.

52x. Don't remember the year?

A. No sir.

53x. Don't remember how long before Samuel Ridenbaugh died?

A. No sir.

54x. About how much time did you spend in your kitchen each day?

A. I was in his kitchen as much as I was in mine; wherever there was anything to be done I was in his kitchen as much as mine.

55x. Did he send for you?

A. Lots of times he would ask me to do things and lots of times I would help him without asking.

56x. Then you had very little time to perform your household duties?

A. Very little, I did more for him than I had time for myself.

57x. Have you any children?

A. Three.
