A. I don't know, just around different places. I heard he boarded with his sister, Mrs. Carrie James when he was on the police force, but outside of that I never knew where. I never knew whether he had a home or not only when he and his wife lived together when he was first married.

A. It has been ten or twelve years ago.

7. It was stated in the Plaintiff's testimony that you never came around the restaurant of Samuel Ridenbaugh; will you state why you were not there more frequently?

A. Because he had a rough class around him and I didn't care to go. I had to make my own living and had no time to go.

A. he had a drunken class around him most all the time.

9. Do you know his brother Toy?

A. Yes sir.

A. At the old home place. I was raised in Clarksburg, W. Va., and about 19 years ago I came to Brunswick and he and his mother kept house down at the old home place.

11. Where did he work?

A. He just did odd jobs around.

12. Do you know whether or not he helped at the restaurant?

A. Yes sir, he worked there more than any other place I know of.
