Dear Mollie--

I just received your veyr kind letter. In regard to Dear Vernon's birth date that is correct. I am too nervous to write so Mamie is and for me. About those notes that is correct it was money used when we went for poor Joe, now you make yourself easy about it, when the farm is sold you will get it back. I would pay it in advance but I am Not able to do anything, and have been sick for 2 years, but you will get it in the future. I am glad that you are better. If I was well nothing would give me more pleasure to have you visit me at the old home; I am improving and when I can write, will write you a long, all join in much love and best wishes to all.

Affectionately
