A. yes, sir.

22. State whether S. Raymond Senseney is married or unmarried, adult or infant, and where he resides?

A. He is an adult and resides in Union Bridge Carroll County, Maryland. He is unmarried.

To the General Interrogatory.

A. nothing further. (Signed) James M. Sappington.

Ambrose S. Whitehill, a witness of lawful age, produced on the part of the Plaintiffs, having first been duly sworn and examined, deposes and says as follows--

1. State your name, age, residence and occupation?

A. Ambrose S. Whitehill; I was born in 1872; I live in Union Bridge, Carroll County, Maryland, and I am Clerk of the town and Tax Collector.

2. Did you know Greenberry R. Sappington and if so, state whether he is living or dead, when he died, whether he died testate or intestate and whether he was married or single.

A. I knew him; he died in February 1914. He left a will and was never married.

3. State whether Elizabeth S. Whitehill is living or dead and if dead, whether she died prior to the death of Greenberry R. Sappington.

A. She is dead and died prior to the death of Greenberry R. Sappington.

4. State the names of the Children of Elizabeth S. Whitehill who were living at the time of her death and at the time of the death of Greenberry R. Sappington, whether they are still living, where they reside, which of them are infants and which adults and whether married or single.

A. I am the son of Elizabeth S. Whitehill and together with my sister, Nannie E. Whitehill, we are the only children of our mother, Elizabeth S. Whitehill, and we were still living at the time of her death and are still living and reside in Union Bridge Carroll County, Maryland. Both of us are single and both adults.

5. The testimony of James M. Sappington has been read to you relating to the children of Richard C. Sappington and William A. Sappington. State whether the names, ages, residences and conditions of life, whether married or single, are correctly given in the said testimony.

A. I have heard the testimony and the information is all correctly given.

6. State whether you know the properties which under the will of Greenberry R. Sappington were devised to the children of Elizabeth Whitehill, Richard C. Sappington and William A. Sappington.

A. Yes, sir. All except the wood lots.

7. State whether the properties are susceptible of division or partition among the parties thereto entitled without great loss and injury.

A. They are not. They couldn't very well be divided.

8. State whether it is to the interest and advantage of all parties in interest that all the properties be sold and the proceeds be divided among the parties entitled thereto.

A. yes, sir. I think it would best to sell it and divide the proceeds.

9. State whether in your opinion the amounts which James M. Sappington, Executor of Greenberry R. Sappington received from the sale of each piece of property, were the fair values of the same?
