PETITION AND COURT'S ORDER TO AMEND BILL OF COMPLAINT.

To the Honorable the Judges of said Court.

The petition of the Plaintiffs in the above cause respectfully represent unto Your Honors--

That heretofore on September 28, 1912, your petitioners filed in Your Honorable Court, a Bill of Complaint for the sale of certain real estate owned by them jointly, and that in said proceedings the name of Emma B. Fink was inadvertently omitted, and that there was no allegation of the death of the death of one Joseph Fink a life tenant of said farm mentioned in said Bill of Complaint. Your petitioners therefore pray your Honor that leave be granted them to amend said Bill of Complaint, so as to include the said Emma B. Fink as one of the parties and to add the allegation of the death of the said Joseph Fink.

H. Kieffer deLauter.

Solicitor for Petitioners.

Upon the foregoing petition it is this 1st day of January 1913 ordered by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity, that leave be and is hereby granted the petitioners to amend their Bill of Complaint by making Emma B. Fink a party defendant, and by the addition of a paragraph alleging the death of the said Joseph Fink as prayed in the foregoing petition.

Glenn H. Worthington.

Judge of the Circuit Court for Frederick County.

AMENDED BILL OF COMPLAINT.

To the Honorable, the Judges of said Court--

The amended Bill of Complaint of Martin F. Fink and Mary A. Fink his wife, Carrie V. Elserode and Albert Elserode her husband, leave of Court having first been had and obtained to amend the original bill filed herein, respectfully represents unto Your Honors--

1. That by the provisions of the last will and testament of a certain Peter Arnold, late of Frederick County, deceased, the said Sarah Fink was devised a life estate in the farm on which she now resides in Urbana District in Frederick County, Maryland, which is a part of a tract called "Remainder" and which was conveyed to the said Peter Arnold, from Charles Hendry, Alexander Jamison, et. al., by deed dated November 23 1872, and recorded in liber C. M. No. 9 folio 279 one of the land records of said Frederick County, said farm containing about 160 acres of land; and by the provisions of said will, after a life estate in Joseph Fink, provided he were living at the death of the said Sarah Fink, but who died about the year of 1907, the said Martin F. Fink, John S. Fink Clayton Fink, Clarence Fink, Carrie V. Elserode and Annie M. Dodd, together with their respective wives and husbands, are the joint owners of the remainder in fee, in said farm, as will appear by reference to said will which is recorded in liber J. P. P. No. 1 folio 225, one of the record books in the office of the register of Wills for Frederick County.
