No. 8934 EQUITY.

In the Circuit Court for

Frederick County in Equity.

§-----0-----§

To the Honorable, the Judges of said Court!

The answer of Murray Lambert and Mary E. Lambert his wife, to the Bill of Complaint of Catharine E. Rewe and others, against against them and others in this Court exhibited 1st. These Defendants admit the matters and things in the 1, 2, and 4th paragraph of said Bill of complaint.

2nd. That they admit the matters and things stated in the 3rd, and 5th, paragraph of said Bellesept that the said parties named therein are the owners of all of said property, and these respondents further state that said parties own said property subject to the claim of these respondents in a large sum of money due and owing from the deceased owner of said property to these respondents before and at the time of the death of said decendant who left no personal estate, which said indebtedness has never been paid and no letters of administration were ever taken out on her estate

3rd. Answering the sixth paragraph of said bill these respondents admit the property should be sold but they aver that their indebtedness should be paid out of the proceeds of said sale, as well as other charges &c therein mentioned, and they are advised that they could file a creditors bill for the sale of said property to pay their said claim, but not desiring to add additional expenses to said matter, they will consent to the passage of a decree by the Court for the sale of said property in the proceedings provided said decree shall contain a reservation of all the rights of these respondents or either of these jointly and severally in law or Equity in and to the fund arising from the sale of said real estate, the same as they have or might have had in, to and against said real estate decreed to be sold, and the parties interested therein, also provided said decree shall contain a reservation for further directions, and that these respondents may be permitted to file their said claim, taken testimony in support thereof and have their rights as aforesaid fully determined by some later order or decree of the Court in this cause.

And as in duty bound etc.
