

A. Those at his home, and they said they couldn't use it.

21x. Your offer was made in writing?

A. No, sir. I made it while I was there.

22x. This was verbal offer made to Mrs. Josephine Hickman, Then?

(Excepted to)

A. Yes, sir.

23x. What did you get for the horse and carriage?

(Excepted to.)

A. I was supposed to get $45. for it.

24x. You had a wagon to, did you?

(Excepted to.)

A. Yes, but they all went together.

25x. I have been informed that this wagon was worth $25.; What in your opinion was its value?

(Excepted to.)

A. I haven't any idea.

26x. What became of the harness?

A. The wagon and horse and harness, all went together.

27x. He had a lot of potatoes in his store at the time of his death, did he not?

(Excepted to.)

A. He didn't have many, and I had lots of expenses incidental to his sickness.

28x. You sold the potatoes?

A. Yes, sir.

29x. What did you get for the potatoes?

(Excepted to.)

A. They were very near all gone when he died. They were very few left.

30x. Just account for the, if you please.

(Excepted to.)

A. I sold them and used the money for his bills. There weren't many left.

31x. As a matter of fact, didn't you sell a considerable lot of potatoes after his death?

(Excepted to.)

A. I sold four bushels after he dies.

31x. There was some other stock in the store, wasn't there?

(Excepted to.)

A. Not very much. About everything was sold.

33x. About $40. worth; something like that amount?

(Excepted to.)

A. No, sir, there wasn't over $25. worth.

34x. You sold that didn't you?

(Excepted to.)

A. Yes, sir.

35x. He had an ice box?

A. I still have it. The show case, several measures, a lot of tomatoe boxes, which I still have.

He said he would not have taken $50. for the ice box. That was what he said before he died. I don't know what it is worth.

36x. Were you present at the time of your husband's death, when the undertaker gave you his clothes?

A. Yes, sir.

37x. He handed you a pair of trusers?

A. Yes, sir.

38x. What did you get out of these trousers?

(Excepted to.)