

2. Please state what you know, if anything, as to the personal property that he owned at the time of his death? (Excepted to)

A. Well, I didn't get up to see the ground; I didn't go up to the store,

3. Were you present in Frederick here at the time of his death?

A. Yes sir.

4. Please state to the Examiner what disposition was made of any personal property that was in his clothing at the time of his death? (Excepted to)

A. I was there when the undertaker came, and when he took charge of brother's body he took off his pants and I was sitting there when he threw them to his wife, and she run her hand in his pocket and got a large roll of notes and two checks, which I didn't see what was on them. I was present right there and saw her, that is all I saw.

5. What did she do with it?

A. Took it and says, "Poor Tom". And I also saw a satchel that size (indicating), as much as she could lug around, full of money. I saw there Saturday evening and on Saturday night. I didn't see what was in it, and it was awful heavy, all solid silver and notes in it.

6. Was that money that was taken in the store? (Excepted to)

A. Yes sir. It was closing hour and my brother was so sick she didn't go down to the store Saturday evening, she had the lady that boarded at the house to go down and what balance of the money was taken in she turned over to his wife.

7. Mrs. Gertrude Hickman took possession of all his money, did she, and checks?

A. Yes sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

1x. Did you know how much money was in the roll of notes which you stated Mrs. Hickman took from her husband's trousers pockets?

A. No sir. I saw several ten dollar notes and five's outside, but I couldn't exactly say what was in it.

2x. How could you see the denomination of the notes if it was in a large roll as you just testified?

A. She undone it and says, "Poor Tom, I knew he had this", but I couldn't tell how many notes was in it, but I knew it was a good sized roll.

3x. Do you know what became of that money?

A. No sir, I do not.

To the General Interrogatory.

A. No sir.
