DECREE.

Mary E. Norris, Executrix,	()	In the Circuit
etc., and Mary E. Norris,	()	Court for Carroll County,
vs.	()	sitting as a Court of Equity.
Milton M. Norris, Francis	()	No. 4893 Equity.
J. Shriner, Executor, etc.,	()
and Francis J. Shriner.	()

The above cause having been heard and submitted, after argument by counsel, and the opinion of this Court having been heretofore filed in this cause, and the said cause being now ready for decree in conformity with said opinion.

It is thereupon this Seventeenth day of August, 1916, by the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity, adjudged, ordered and decreed, that the true construction of the last will and testament of Peter H. Shriner, late of Carroll County, in the State of Maryland, deceased, filed and of record in these proceedings, is as follows:

FIRSTLY:

(A) That upon the death of Florence R. Shriner without child or children surviving her an undivided one-half interest in the tracts or parcels of land situated partly in Carroll County and in Frederick County, in the State of Maryland, and designated in said testator's will and in these proceedings and the "Sam's Creek Farm" and the "Woodlot" should be sold under the residuary clause by Francis J. Shriner and Mary E. Norris, executors of Peter H. Shriner, deceased, and that the proceeds of sale of such undivided one-half interest, after the deduction of all proper costs and expenses of sale, fall into and pass under the residuary clause of the last will and testament of said Peter H. Shriner, deceased, unto the said Francis J. Shriner and Mary E. Norris in equal portions, share and share alike; and

(B) That the remaining undivided one-half interest in said Sam's Creek Farm and Woodlot is owned and held by said Mary E. Norris for and during her life, and from and after her death, the said remaining undivided one-half interest in said Sam's Creek Farm and Woodlot will pass to and vest unto said last will and testament in any child or children of the said Mary E. Norris surviving at her death; and, if there be no such surviving child or children, the said remaining undivided one-half interest in said farm and woodlot will fall into and pass under the residuary clause of said will to said Francis J. Shriner, if living at the death of said Mary E. Norris; but if the said Francis J. Shriner shall die before the death of the said Mary E. Norris, then upon the death of said Mary E. Norris without child or children, such remaining undivided one-half interest in said Sam's Creek Farm and Woodlot will under the will become a part of the estate of said Mary E. Norris, deceased, and be payable to her personal representatives; and that that upon the death of said Mary E. Norris without leaving a child or children, surviving, said undivided one-half interest
